Young Women in Topology

Date: Friday, June 7 to Sunday, June 9, 2013
Location: Department of Mathematics, University of Bonn
Organization: Graduiertenkolleg 1150 „Homotopy and Cohomology"

This is the fourth meeting of our series of weekend-long workshops intended in particular for female Master students, PhD students and Postdocs in topology.

Program
The workshop centres around a series of lectures by Prof. Heather Russel (University of Southern California) on Topological applications of web combinatorics and by Prof. Aaron Lauda (University of Southern California) on Knot homology from higher representation theory.

The lectures will be complemented by talks of the participants, a poster exhibition and ample time for discussion. All talks and the poster exhibition are open to the public.

Female participants are invited to submit an abstract to a contributed talk or poster and to apply for financial support.
